Press release

Upcoming changes to Volvo Group's management

Mikael Bratt, member of the Volvo Group's Executive Team, has announced that he intends to leave his position as Executive Vice President Group Trucks Operations. He has been recruited as business area president with the automotive safety company, Autoliv.

A global recruitment process will commence at the beginning of next year. Mikael Bratt will remain in his current position for up to six months until a new head of the Volvo Group's global production organization is appointed.

"It is with mixed feelings that I leave the Volvo Group after 27 fantastic years", says Mikael Bratt, Executive Vice President Group Trucks Operations. "The Group has entered a new exciting phase, at the same time my new job as head of a complete business area offers a challenge that I cannot resist."
